

Contents

Preface	1
Introduction	5
Chapter One: Basic Psychology of the Firm	13
1. Personality Types
2. Human Nature: The Case of Robert
3. Scapegoating: The Case of Gridlock and Stasis, LLP
4. Stress Management: The Case of the Toxic Office
5. Problem Drinking and Loss Prevention: The Case of Guppy
6. The Process of Entry: The Case of Kafka and Franz, LLP
7. Managing Client Relations in Good Times and Bad
Chapter Two: Supervisors and Mentors	41
1. Supervision
2. Supervisorial Mentoring and Mentorship Supervision: The Case of Throckmorton and Gervaise
3. Retaining Associates
4. Caveat Mentor
Chapter Three: Leaders and Followers	59
1. The Leaderly Manager
2. Natural and Situational Leadership
3. Leading Work Group Meetings: The Case of the Resistant Group
4. Psychodynamics of Leader-Follower Relations I
5. Psychodynamics of Leader-Follower Relations II
6. Following Leaders

Chapter Four: Managing the Firm	83
1. Managing the Work Group
2. Management Principles: The Case of Jaundice, Rancor and Bile, LLP
3. Management Principles: Ten Suggestions
4. Managing through a Recession: The Case of Bright Star Technology, Int.
Chapter Five: Structuring and Managing Compensation	103
1. Toward a Saner Compensation System: The Case of Sigo, Ido & Scopy, LLP
2. Toward a Saner Compensation System: Seniority Revisited
3. Toward a Saner Compensation System: The Bonus Delirium and Reaction Formations
Chapter Six: Boards	111
1. Boards of Directors
2. Boards of Directors: The Case of H-P
3. Making Boards Effective
Chapter Seven: Career Change and Retirement	123
1. Outplacement Counseling
2. Career Review: The Cases of Alan and Richard
3. Retirement: A Developmental Task
4. Retirement as a Process
5. Doing Psychological Work on Retirement
Bibliography	141